Dear all,

In accordance with the Queensland government's June 4th statement surrounding the re-introduction of club sport, the Chess Association of Queensland is happy to announce that chess clubs and ACF-rated tournaments will be able to resume as of June 8th in a minimised capacity.

Listed below are the Chess Association of Queensland's regulations:

- Events and club meetings cannot have more than 20 people in one location (this is inclusive of arbiters, players, spectators, etc.)

- Events and club meetings must display the COVID Safe Checklist (Link 3)

- Events and club meetings must adhere to all required practises as indicated on the COVID Safe Checklist (Link 3)

- All Club Presidents and Tournament Organisers must check the following documents before hosting their event or club meeting:
 - o Link 1: https://www.covid19.qld.gov.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0025/127942/return-to-play-checklist.pdf
 - o Link 2: <https://www.covid19.qld.gov.au/government-actions/roadmap-to-easing-queenslands-restrictions/sport/safe-plan>
 - o Link 3: https://www.covid19.qld.gov.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0016/127150/DPC7309-COVID-19-Restrictions-roadmap.pdf

Note: The CAQ possesses the right to un-affiliate any CAQ-affiliated club or un-endorse any ACF rated tournament that is found to breach any of the prescribed regulations.

If any club has any queries or concerns, please feel free to contact hughstonparle@gmail.com.

Yours Sincerely,

Hughston Parle
